The Special meeting of the October 2, 2007 Board of Education meeting was called to order at 7:00 p.m. by Board President Patty Anderson.

Note the roll. Paul Hain, Business Manager, was also in attendance

Public Comment

George Keim – made comment about the district’s above average students being more directly related to involvement and support of the families. He also addressed the state of benefits in the private sector and how they do not compare to those in education.

John Puleo – addressed the registration fee issue as well as sports fees and that announced that he had contacted an attorney regarding the matter. He concluded with his disappointment in the amount of reduction to the deficit and his non-support of a three year deal with the RSGEA.

Mr. Samuel made a motion to reduce the registration fees by ½ tonight. Mrs. Anderson pointed out to Mr. Samuel that registration fees were not listed on the agenda this evening.

Closed Session
